OUR STORY

A New Era. India on the World Map.

The world has its list of leading brands. The question we asked ourselves was simple: How do we earn our place on that list?

This is the story of a new era we're crafting - one that brings India to the global stage.

Back in 2010, long before AI became the most talked-about force reshaping industries, our founder was already exploring its potential - studying AI in weather technology and using that knowledge to bring an unprecedented concept like Snow World to life. For a country with the world's largest population but the least exposure to international facilities and global standards, we built Snow World, our first ever venture - a world of playfulness, wonder, and possibility.

That one bold move ignited something deeper. Snow World didn't just bring wonder - it sparked a new thoughtfulness, a new chapter. It opened the door to many more brands and experiences yet to come.

Our zeal, passion, and dreams ran too deep to stay dormant. PJHPL is not the story of one visionary or one brand. It is the story of India entering a new phase of hospitality and tourism one that will soon stand alongside the most recognized global brands.

Yes, we've built 20+ brands across India's major metro cities. But that's not what we're proud of. What drives us is something else entirely: bringing smiles and happiness through our own way of luxury and entertainment.

That's what shapes our vision. That's what defines the next chapter we're about to reveal in 2026 - From Indian plates to global states.

meet our FOUNDER

At the helm of the brand is Mr. Prasuk Jain, a brand maven and entrepreneur with over two decades of diverse business expertise, recognized in Business World 40 Under 40. He began his entrepreneurial journey at just 19 with a clear vision to reimagine leisure and entertainment in India. Since founding the brand in 2011, he has pioneered the convergence of premium dining, competitive socialising, and immersive entertainment - building homegrown concepts that stand shoulder to shoulder with global benchmarks.

What truly sets Prasuk apart is how he leads - with heart, intuition, and hands-on involvement. Equally at ease in an investor meeting or on a construction site, his leadership lives in the details, where vision meets execution. Even after decades of work, he approaches every new space with the same curiosity and fire as his first - creating with precision, passion, and purpose, and inspiring teams by doing, not directing.
